Rōmulus et Remus V

Imperfectum; Perfectum

Rōmulus et Remus diū mansērunt.

Cibum cōnsūmēbānt et lac bibēbant.

Prope flūvium habitābat pastor Faustulus.

Faustulus et Acca in casā parvā habitābant.

Acca Faustulum amābat. Faustulus Accam amābat.

Līberōs nōn habēbant.

Faustulus puerōs forte cōnspexit.

Ad casam festīnāvit et cucurrit.

Text adapted by Sean Gabb from Robert Bass (2026 10 12)

Romulus and Remus Part Five Imperfect; perfect

Romulus et Remus cum lupā et picō diu manserunt. cibum pici consumebant et lac lupae bibebant. prope fluvium habitabat pastor, nomine Faustulus. uxor Faustuli erat Acca. Faustulus et Acca in casā parvā habitabant. Acca Faustulum amabat. Faustulus Accam amabat. liberos tamen non habebant. olim Faustulus, dum prope fluvium ambulat, pueros parvos in ripā forte conspexit. attonitus erat. ad casam festinavit. celeriter cucurrit. mox casam intravit.

ad: to, towards (accusative) ambulo, ambulare, ambulavi: to walk amo, amare, amavi, amatus: to love attonitus, attonita, attonitum: astonished bibo, bibere, bibi, bibitus: to drink casa, casae (f.): house, cottage celeriter: quickly cibus, cibi (m.): food conspicio, conspicere, conspexi, conspectus: to catch sight of consumo, consumere, consumpsi, consumptus: to consume, eat cum: with (ablative) curro, currere, cucurri, cursus: to run diu: for a long time dum: while festino, festinare, festinavi, festinatus: to hurry fluvius, fluvii (m.): river forte: by chance habito, habitare, habitavi, habitatus: to live, dwell intro, intrare, intravi, intratus: to enter lac, lactis (n.): milk liberi, liberorum (m. pl.): children lupa, lupae (f.): she-wolf maneo, manere, mansi, mansus: to remain, stay mox: soon nomen, nominis (n.): name olim: one day, once, formerly parvus, parva, parvum: small pastor, pastoris (m.): shepherd picus, pici (m.): woodpecker prope: near (accusative) puer, pueri (m.): boy ripa, ripae (f.): riverbank tamen: however uxor, uxoris (f.): wife

Text adapted by Sean Gabb from Robert Bass (2026 10 12)